The life member category is an honor recognizing individual members for their special contributions to the NSRT and the profession. This membership status is limited to active members who have rendered exceptional service and dedication to the NSRT. Life members are exempt from all annual dues payments. Life members retain all rights and privileges of regular active members.

Life members are recognized for their outstanding contributions to the profession and to the NSRT. In particular, this membership category recognizes a wide range of activities, not solely maintaining a long time NSRT Membership. Life members should be recognized for sustained superior performance in support of the NSRT and the radiologic science profession.

They shall be selected by a unanimous vote of the Board of Directors, upon the unanimous recommendation of the Life Member Committee and be receive Life Member status at an Annual Conference Awards Ceremony.

1. Has the nominee's participation as a NSRT member reflected exceptional service and dedication to the NSRT and the profession?
_____ Yes _____ No
2. Has the nominee been an active NSRT member for at least 10 years as of the date of nomination?
_____ Yes _____ No
3. Is the nominee free of attributes and conduct that would discredit the NSRT?
